

SMITH RIVER RANCHERIA TRIBAL COURT BAR

Robert Bohrer Yurok Tribe 190 Klamath Blvd. Klamath, CA 95548, 707-482-1350

Katrina Thompson-Upton, P.O. Box 2441, Harbor, OR 97415, 541-661-0665

Leroy A. Davies, Attorney at Law, 341 "H" Street, Crescent City, CA 95531, 707-465-4745

NOTE: Court litigants may represent themselves (pro-se) or be represented by an attorney or spokesperson admitted to the Tribal Bar. To apply for the Smith River Rancheria Tribal Bar, send a letter and statement of your qualifications to
Smith River Rancheria Tribal Court Clerk's Office,
Smith River Rancheria Tribal Court, P.O. Box 992, Smith River, CA 95567

COPIES ARE AVAILABLE:
Smith River Rancheria Tribal Court Clerk's Office
140 Rowdy Creek Road, Smith River, CA 95567
or on the Smith River Rancheria Website: www.tolowa-nsn.gov

Children's Code, Domestic Relations Code, Rules of Court and Civil Procedure,

Smith River Tribal Court Ordinance

To be admitted to the Tribal Court Bar, a person must:

- A. Be of good moral character;
- B. Be approved by the Tribal Court or judicial officer;
- C. Sign and take a Spokesperson's Oath; and
- D. Pay the Tribal Court Bar admission fee of fifty dollars ($50).

A person may be denied admission to the Tribal Court Bar if:

- A. The person has ever been convicted of any felony or any other crime which involves, as a necessary element, interference with the administration of justice, false swearing, misrepresentation, fraud, deceit, bribery, extortion, misappropriation or theft, or an attempt, or a conspiracy or solicitation of another to commit one of the above crimes; or
- B. The person has been denied admission or disbarred on a prior occasion, whether or not the person appealed the denial or appeared at a disbarment hearing; or
- C. The person has been found to have violated, or has been accused of violating, the Spokesperson's Oath.